Rev. Michael A. Brown Appointed Rector At Schuylkill Haven Church

THE REV. MICHAEL A. BROWN

Father Brown, assistant at St. Margaret's Catholic Church, Narberth, has been appointed Rector of St. Ambrose's at Schuylkill Haven, Pa.

The Rev. Michael A. Brown, assistant rector at St. Margaret's Catholic Church, Narberth, since June 4, 1937 has been appointed rector of St. Ambrose's Church, Schuylkill Haven, Pa., it was learned by OUR TOWN yesterday.

It is understood that Father Brown will assume his new duties on Wednesday of next week.

The parish at Schuylkill Haven is one of the oldest in the Philadelphia Archdiocese, having been established in 1851, more than 90 years ago. Included in it is a mission chapel at Port Clinton and also two Schuylkill County institutions, the Almshouse and Insane Asylum, all of which will be served spiritually by the new rector and his assistants.

Previous to coming to Narberth, Father Brown was located at St. Francis' Church, Norristown, and before that at several Philadelphia churches, including the Incarnation, Most Precious Blood, St. Catharine's and St. Thomas'.

He is a graduate of St. Joseph's College and studied for the priesthood at Overbrook Seminary.

No Contests for Committee Posts

Primary Election Seen Uneventful in Narberth Districts

As far as the election of district committeemen and women are concerned, Narberth Borough will have one of the quietest primaries in year.

Neither the Republicans or Democrats have any contests in the three election districts.

All Republican committee people are seeking reelection to their party posts.

Democrats will vote on committeemen and women in Districts No. 2 and No. 3 but Monday, the last day for filing petitions, passed without the Democrats entering candidates for the committee vacancies in District No. 1.

A list of the candidates who have filed in the three election districts follows:

District No. 1: Joseph P. White, R.; and Louise Voss Cockrill, R.

District No. 2: John C. Batchelor, R.; Ethel M. Williams, R.; Paul Wohlert, D.; Elizabeth D. M. Kelly, D.

District No. 3: Margaret U. Griswold, R.; William D. R. Evans, R.; Ellen S. Brimora, D.; Kenneth L. M. Pray, D.

Firemen To See How They Fight Fires

The pictures show the firemen in action and cover all the fires extinguished by the company since last October.

Narberth, Manoa In Baseball League

Six Clubs to Comprise Main Line Circuit; Hanley Re-elected

For the first time since 1904 there will be no upper Main Line team in the Main Line Baseball League this summer.

The league has been reorganized into a six team affair comprising Manoa, defending champion; Narberth, Gladwyne, Ardmore, Overbrook and Brookline.

In addition to the absence of both Berwyn and Paoli, there won't be a club piloted by the veteran Eddie Sullivan for the first time in more than a decade. Sullivan managed the West Phils for the past two seasons and in the past piloted several other clubs, including Dun-kirk, Media A. A. and Ardmore.

Marple-Newtown and Prospect Park applied for franchises but they were turned down so that the league might be kept as compact as possible.

The league is considering playing only one week-end game and the other as a twilight mid-week contest. In the past it has always operated on Saturdays and Sundays.

Walter Hanley, of Wynnewood, was again elected president. Herb Good, of Ardmore, and Harold Keating of Narberth, vice presidents, and Charles E. Harnden, secretary-treasurer, were also re-elected.

Funeral Services For Mrs. Amy Kluxen; Old Boro Resident

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 1820 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, for Mrs. Amy Kluxen, 70, who was one of Narberth's oldest residents. The services were conducted by the Rev. Cletus A. Sentz, pastor of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church of Narberth. Burial was at Fernwood.

Mrs. Kluxen is survived by her husband, Edward.

Mr. and Mrs. Kluxen's home at 235 Iona av. had just been built when they moved to Narberth from West Philadelphia 30 years ago. Their home was one of the first to be built on the street.

Mrs. Kluxen was found unconscious in a chair at her home last Monday and was taken to the Bryn Mawr Hospital where she was pronounced dead.

Orion Berry, Jr. Dies After Long Illness

Before he became ill, Berry was a district sales manager for the Beechnut Packing Company. He was a member of the Masonic Order.

Berry is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Robert Matlack and Miss Doris Berry; his father, Orion Berry, Sr.; a sister, Miss Elizabeth Berry; and a brother, Norman Berry.

Boro Merchant Observes 20th Anniversary And Writes Article To Tell How It Was Done

Like many of the unusual ideas that have brought success in his business enterprise, Ralph S. Dunne, Narberth merchant, is observed in an article written by him and being published in the April issue of "Your Life".

He is staying home, reflecting back over those 20 years and jotting down notes on the things that have made his smooth-running organization possible.

For Mr. Dunne believes that no matter how small the town or how small the business, it can become, in its own sphere of development, just as big as you make it.

In line with these reflections, part of Mr. Dunne's notes will appear in an article written by him and being published in the April issue of "Your Life". The article, under the title of "How I made Henry Ford Work for Me," is about one of Mr. Dunne's unusual ideas in which he draws on an imaginary

Rotary Observes 16th Anniversary

Dr. Ivor Griffiths Urges Training in Early Years

Parents were urged to pay more attention to the formative years in the home by Dr. Ivor Griffiths when he spoke Tuesday at the luncheon meeting of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club.

The meeting was the 16th anniversary of the club's organization and 78 members, other nearby Rotarians and their friends were present.

Dr. Griffiths, who is president of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science, spoke on "Education Begins in the Home."

Alvin Shull, first president of the club when it was organized, was chairman of the anniversary program. Dr. Richard Mears, president, presided.

Dr. Griffiths stressed the importance of a child's first six years of life. He compared it to those early years in the growth of a tree when a tree's future symmetry and span of years is determined by early pruning and protective measures.

"To often," he said, "the third generation of a family is only one-third as good as its founder."

L. Stanley King, past president, read off the names of the visitors present.

McCUTCHEONS HOME SAFELY AFTER BEING SNOW-BOUND IN CABIN

It was March, 1942, but it might have been an experience our grandparents had during the famous blizzard of March, 1888.

Even the Narberth family that went through it are beginning to rub their eyes and wonder if they were really snow-bound in a log cabin in the Blue Ridge mountains last week-end.

So snow-bound and surrounded by head-high drifts in their cabin near Charming, Pa., that they had to be rescued and carried to safety on the broad, bare backs of dray horses from a nearby ranch.

"My wife's glad to be home," declared Mrs. James K. McCutcheon when she arrived at her home, 10 Elmwood av., on Wednesday afternoon. "I thought, we would never get here."

Mr. and Mrs. McCutcheon left Saturday morning for their log cabin in the Blue Ridge mountains which is miles from the nearest town. Their son James, who is

Narberth's New Fire Chief Is Art Curator And Musician

Chief Nulty was moved up from the position of deputy by a vote of the volunteer firemen last week to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of John Miller. He has been associated with the company since 1911 and was elected director in 1935.

Nulty has been associated with Dr. Albert C. Barnes, founder of the Barnes Foundation for the past 24 years. As curator at the Foundation he restores and watches over famous paintings, antiques and other art objects.

"This is a critical election year," said Waterall, "and I believe every Republican should make what sacrifices are necessary to insure a party victory next November."

Similar action was taken by Mrs. Owen J. Toland before she left several weeks ago for Acon, S. C. Mrs. Toland had intended to run for Republican Committeewoman in the same Wynnewood district but had decided at the last moment to accept a harmony proposal.

CO-ORDINATED ATTACK AND DEFENSE GAVE MAROON THIRD CHAMPIONSHIP

Who owns the finest basketball team in the state?

LOWER MERION HIGH SCHOOL!!

Yeah, man! You tell 'em.

Who's the greatest coach in the land?

BILL ANDERSON!!

You said it, pal. Whoopie!

That, in brief, sums up the sentiments of the Main Line sports public today. Everyone's still thrilled and singing the praises of "Andy" and his boys almost a week after the glorious, spine-tingling triumph which placed Lower Merion on the state basketball throne for the second straight year.

Sharon High School, the club that kept L. M. from winning the state crown in 1940, the first year the Maroon participated in the PIAA tournament, was the final barrier in a month of campaigning. As was anticipated the Western Pennsylvania champs turned out to be tough, stubborn foes but Lower Merion rose to the occasion with a championship exhibition to grab the decision at 32-27.

10,000 See Game

More than 10,000 jammed into every nook and cranny of the Penn. State arena to witness the climax battle and everyone was convinced that the superior and more deserving team walked off the floor with the spoils.

The victory, 25th in 26 games this season and the 34th in the last 35 contests, enabled Lower Merion to equal Hazleton's record of winning two consecutive state titles and three all told. It was the sixth appearance for L. M. in the finals and gave the locals a 500 per cent increase in games with Western Regional champions.

Just seven youngsters—Captain Harry Middleton and Greer Heindel, the two holdovers from the team that defeated Duquesne in the 1941 final; Don Evans, Allen Eakins, Joe DeFelice, Ward Kane and Art Campbell—carried the Maroon banners into this final battle. Everyone covered himself with glory in helping win one of the great victories in the school's brilliant athletic history.

Middleton Shows Way

It was Middleton who directed the attack, who kept the team at even keel at all times with that calm, nerveless manner of his and who set the standard for the team's defensive play. Heindel and Evans frustrated the Tigers under the backboards and also connected for the heaviest punches. Eakins and DeFelice, the latter playing his first full game, were steady, vital performers, each coming through with a field goal early in the game to help L. M. rain the upper hand and then helping to control the tempo of the battle with dazzling passing and smart, effective defensive play.

Kane and Campbell responded grandly in reserve roles, using their height to excellent advantage and fitting into the victorious machine without slowing its drive or hurting its balance. Kane was only in the game a minute when he dribbled behind the second line of Sharon's zone for a layup, one of the two goals L. M. collected in the fourth quarter.

Middleton completed his career with the most dazzling of a series of brilliant defensive performances that clearly placed him in a niche with the greatest L. M. players of all time. The Maroon captain was pitted against Pete Molnar, 6-foot-11 Sharon forward who had tallied 37 points in the two preceding games. So close and cleverly did Middleton guard him that Molnar never had a chance to play his accustomed game. What shots he did get were hurried and while he made two field goals, only one was charged against Middleton, and that was made on a rebound.

Heindel's Gift Goal

Molnar got his other goal when Heindel mistook him for a teammate and passed directly to the Sharon star in midcourt. The latter was able to score without anyone coming close to him. Molnar also converted two foul tries, but the foul was committed by one of Middleton's teammates. Middleton, in turn, scored two field goals and also cashed in on two foul shots.

STATE CHAMPS!

Sharon	G.	L.	T.	Pts.
Lower Merion	1	0	0	27
Sharon	0	1	0	32

Lower Merion	G.	L.	T.	Pts.
Sharon	1	0	0	27
Lower Merion	0	1	0	32

Score by Quarters	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	Total
Sharon	10	8	7	2	27
Lower Merion	7	10	6	9	32

to equal Molnar's six points.

Heindel more than made up for his "gift" goal to Sharon. He was a terror on the backboards and was never better when the pressure was on. It was he who banged in two points to lead a blistering third period charge which netted 14 points and lifted Lower Merion's 14-10 halftime lead to 28-18 by the start of the fourth quarter. And it was Heindel, today being acclaimed the greatest money player, since Mike Zengel, who slipped behind the Sharon defense, took a pass from Evans and racked up a field goal in the last 30 seconds to halt a Sharon rally which had whittled L. M.'s lead to 30-27 with a minute to go.

Heindel's play might have been just a bit more spectacular than that of Evans, but the latter's was none the less effective. Evans, who never played basketball until this season, had the fans marveling at his ability to get the ball off the backboards, especially in the second half. He handed out many nice assists and got his points when they were needed most.

Heindel, Evans Sparkle

Heindel and Evans topped both teams in scoring with nine points each. The former contributed four goals from scrimmage and on from the foul line while Evans netted three of each variety.

Jim Moran, a strapping lad of 6-foot-2, one of the best centers ever to oppose the Maroon, and Spike Stupka, splendid guard, paced Sharon with eight points each.

The game itself was in Lower Merion's control after the first five minutes, but Sharon never conceded the game and was dangerous until the final seconds. The invaders got off to a 2-1 lead, but Lower Merion went ahead at 3-2 on a set shot by Eakins and, after a foul toss by Suita tied it at 3-all Evans scored underneath after taking a pass from Heindel and Eakins converted a foul to make L. M.'s edge 6-3 at the end of the first period.

The Maroon increased its lead to 10-3 before Sharon finally scored its second field goal. The westerners whipped in three in a row, but the Main Liners countered with two foul tosses by Evans and a set shot by DeFelice to give them a 14-10 edge at halftime.

Maroon Sports

Lower Merion then proceeded to sew up the game with its third quarter spurge. A foul toss by Middleton and a field goal by Heindel ran the Maroon's advantage to 17-10 before Suita scored two long range goals for Sharon. These points were counteracted by foul tosses by Eakins and Heindel, plus a spectacular running one-handed shot by the latter.

Molnar pushed in his rebound goal at this juncture for Sharon, cutting the Maroon lead to 21-16. However, Evans pushed in two rebounds and Middleton hit the mark from long range and also dunked a foul toss while Sharon could garner only a pivot goal by Stupka, making the score 28-18 as the fourth period got underway.

Moran batted in a rebound, and also caged a foul try for Sharon before Kane entered the game and came through with his timely goal. Thus, the score stood at 30-21 for more than three minutes before Molnar, fouled in the act of shooting, converted both tries for Sharon and Stupka drove inside for a layup.

Lead Melts

This latter goal made the score 30-25 with two minutes and 30 seconds to go, and when Stupka tallied two free throws a little more than a minute later the fans almost took off the roof. But the Lower Merion boys maintained their poise under the increased pressure and when Heindel slipped behind Sharon's defense, Evans, who had the ball, was quick to see him. There was a lightning pass. Heindel took a short dribble and banked the shot against the backboard without a Sharon defender coming close to him.
